

2009 Summer Reading Passport Listen to the Wind

LET'S BEGIN...

Visit www.minitreks.info for

- maps of the Open Spaces in Chelmsford and Carlisle.
- These maps use Google Earth to show the path and distance of the trails.
- We recommend the Satellite View.
- In almost all cases the BLUE trail is the primary one. The red path will shorten the hike.
- Parking spots are shown for most properties.

Thank you to Lisa Huntington for the maps.

Remember your bug spray, socks and shoes (no sandals) for the woods.

<http://www.letterboxing.org>
<http://www.geocaching.com>
<http://www.thechelmsfordian.com>

For more information about these activities, and to help you find sites in Chelmsford:

Have you tried letterboxing or geocaching to find hidden items in Chelmsford?

After you have hiked for five miles, in Chelmsford or elsewhere, bring this passport into the library and we will stamp it for you....