

How to:

Podcasts can be downloaded directly from podcast websites; from podcast apps on mobile devices; or from iTunes. You can elect to subscribe to specific podcasts to have new episodes download to your device automatically when they're available.

Some places to find even more podcasts for kids are:

Please note that sources often group "kids and family" podcasts together, meaning some podcasts listed will be aimed at caregivers, rather than children, as their audience. There are some great parenting podcasts available for you to listen to (without the kiddos)!

Podcasts for Kids

Podcasts are audio files that can be downloaded to a computer or mobile device. Despite the name, you do not need an iPod to listen to podcasts.

Podcasts are made on a variety of topics for all ages. They are often produced as series to which listeners can subscribe to automatically download new episodes.

Just like listening to audiobooks or to someone else reading aloud, listening to podcasts counts toward your summer reading time!
