

SO JUST

BOOK GROUP

CHELMSFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Lowell Transitional Living Center

March 29, 2021

The Lowell Transitional Living Center (LTLC) is the largest shelter and homeless support organization north of Boston. LTLC provides the most vulnerable adults in the Merrimack Valley community with stability through shelter, showers, laundry, and food.

LTLC Information and Links:

There are multiple ways to donate to the Center.

1. Click 'Make a Gift' on the upper right hand corner of their website, <https://ltlc.org/>. Direct link to their PayPal donation site is here where you can donate by debit or credit card as well as a PayPal account.
2. Donate your time by volunteering in the kitchen or donation center.
3. Purchase items on LTLC's Amazon wishlist.
4. Purchase toiletries (not on the amazon wishlist but consistently needed) and drop them off at LTLC.
5. Sponsor a community meal.

Contact Triage Manager Isaiah Stephens with any questions or comments:

Email: istephens@ltlc.org

Call: 978-761-9461

Related Information and Links:

The Eviction Lab - <https://evictionlab.org/>

South Middlesex Opportunity Council - <https://www.smoc.org/>

House of Hope - <https://houseofhopelowell.org/>

Second Chance Cars - <https://www.secondchancecars.org/>

Consider joining Chelmsford Public Library's Social Justice Book Group which meets at 7 p.m. on the third Tuesday of every month. Click here for details.