CHELMSFORD HELPS YOU PREPARE FOR EMERGENCIES! 72-Hour Emergency Kits

Are you certain that your family has sufficient emergency supplies in your home? You should be! To help you address this top priority issue, the Chelmsford Board of Health and the Upper Merrimack Valley Medical Reserve Corps are purchasing supplies in bulk, so local residents can prepare their own 72-Hour Emergency Kits. Come and assemble your own “go-kit” with previously purchased supplies, to ensure that your family is better prepared.

Take advantage of discounted pricing obtained through bulk purchasing, and avoid the hassle of running around to purchase needed supplies. One-stop shopping!

Your cost will cover a backpack, emergency disaster guide, crank flashlight and radio, tarp, tent, and numerous first-aid and emergency supplies.

Cost: $50.00/kit (prepayment required by June 10th) Location: Chelmsford Police Station Training Room Date: Thursday June 26, 2008 Time: 6 – 7 pm (pick up backpack) 7 - 9 p.m. (MRC information/orientation if interested) Register by calling the Chelmsford Board of Health @ 978 978-250-5241
